

USDA-Inspected Livestock Slaughter Facilities in Florida¹

Chad Carr, Larry Eubanks, and Ryan Dijkhuis²

Several livestock producers are trying to gain a greater portion of the available profit margin by becoming meat marketers, rather than just livestock marketers. Additionally, many Florida consumers aspire to buy locally raised products. The following is a comprehensive list of USDA-inspected meat-animal slaughter facilities in the State of Florida. Contact these processors to help meet the needs of potential niche marketers or the most discriminating meat consumer.
