Goals of the National 4-H Shooting Sports Program

- Teach decision-making, teamwork, self-discipline, self-confidence, and problem solving.
- Promote the highest standards of safety, sportsmanship, and ethical behavior.
- Encourage and appreciate an understanding of natural resources.
- Develop leadership abilities.
- Build character and willingness to assume citizenship responsibility.
- Furnish enjoyable, positive relationships with peers and adult instructors.
- Strengthen families through participation in lifelong recreational activities.
- Build awareness of related career opportunities.

The purpose of the Florida 4-H Air Rifle/Smallbore Rifle Project Book is to help you document your growth, development, and progress as a 4-H member.

Your Goals and Objectives for the Year

What do you want to achieve by participating in the 4-H rifle project? Answering this will help you identify your goals for the year.

Identifying goals and objectives helps you become more skilled and knowledgeable and helps track your growth and progress.

Goals are statements of things you want to achieve or improve.

Objectives are the things you need to do to reach your goals.

List three goals for your 4-H rifle project this year.

For each goal, list three objectives you need to accomplish to reach the goal.
